

Integrated Leadership Series

A Leadership Development Series

Are you interested in being part of a strong network of leaders? Are you seeking new tools to diversify your approach to leadership? Are you open to an opportunity that challenges you to develop yourself as an intentional leader?

This leadership series focuses on the tools needed to address today's business environment. With a skilled group coach, you will work together to explore critical areas of your leadership, including accountability, courage and self-knowledge. Conversations are designed to be expansive and challenging, encouraging new ways of leading.

Results to expect:

- Develop heightened “emotional intelligence” for greater professional achievement and satisfaction
- Discover breakthrough leadership communication techniques for becoming a more powerful leader
- Develop a leadership style that is intentional and authentic
- Identify strengths, weaknesses and opportunities in your work relationships
- Understand the impact of values, beliefs, attitudes and perceptions
- Experience a powerful group-coaching experience

Components of Integrated Leadership for Men

- The course is limited to 15 leaders
- 2.5-hour sessions
- Tools and training designed to challenge and expand you as a leader
- Facilitated by a highly skilled group coach
- An interactive experience of peer-to-peer learning
